Declarations

Practising, newly-qualified and returner members must complete a membership declaration by signing up to the following statements in the space provided. These are derived from the requirements in the RCSLT Memorandum and Articles of Association.

- I declare my adherence to the published Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct (See Communicating Quality (3), Professional standards for speech and language therapists).
- I declare my commitment to maintaining my competence and expertise through active engagement in a range of professional activities, events and continuing education and agree to engage in a programme of continuing professional development of which I am keeping an up-to-date record.
- I declare my understanding that if I practise in the United Kingdom, I must be registered with the Health Professions Council.

RCSLT membership categories 2008-2009

Please read the following membership categories carefully

■ CertMRCSLT membership

- i Practising member "I have been accepted as a certified practising member of the RCSLT through completing my pre-registration education on a course accredited by the RCSLT or have joined the practising membership having had my qualifications assessed through formal RCSLT processes or the Mutual Recognition Agreement."

■ Transition to certified membership categories (MRCSLT)

- ii Newly-qualified practitioner members "I have qualified as a speech and language therapist in the UK or Republic of Ireland. I am a practising speech and language therapist and I am currently undertaking a supervised programme of professional development designed to help me meet the requirements of the RCSLT NQP framework, under the supervision of a certified member of the RCSLT or overseas professional body that is signatory to the Mutual Recognition Agreement."
- iii Returners "I have returned to work as a speech and language therapist in the last 12 months, after a career break of two years or more. I agree to meeting all regulatory requirements for my return to practise."

■ Other non-certified member categories (MRCSLT)

- iv International member "I am a qualified speech and language therapist working outside the UK. I am not undertaking a programme of continuing professional development in line with RCSLT requirements."
- v Non-practising members "I am a qualified speech and language therapist, not currently working as a speech and language therapist."
- vi Student members "I am studying for a speech and language therapy qualification or am a qualified SLT undertaking further full-time study."
- vii Retired members "I worked as a speech and language therapist or SLT assistant, technical instructor or support worker. I have retired and I am not in any form of paid employment."
- viii Associate members "I am an SLT assistant, a technical instructor or a support worker receiving regular supervision from a qualified SLT. I am not a qualified speech and language therapist."

■ Non-member categories

- ix Subscribers "I do not fit with any of the above categories and want to subscribe to the RCSLT Bulletin."
