

Head Injury Reading List for Speech and Language Therapists

THIS READING LIST IS DIVIDED INTO EIGHT SECTIONS:

1. Communication
2. Cognitive and other deficits
3. Epidemiology and general
4. Acute stage, coma, PTA and vegetative state
5. Outcome and rehabilitation
6. Family and psychosocial
7. Service planning
8. Dysphagia

It is hoped that this reading list will be regularly updated. Suggestions for additions or amendments would be welcomed. These should be sent to Ashleigh Denman, Speech and Language Therapy Department, Gloucestershire Royal Hospital, Great Western Road, Gloucester, GL1 3NN. Telephone: 08454 225138. E-mail: adenman@beeb.net.

THANKS GO TO:

- The committee and members of the Head Injury Specific Interest Group – for allowing me to revamp their original list.
- The South West Traumatic Brain Injury Specific Interest Group – for their support.
- Sue Toller – for keeping things on track.
- Debbie Boughton, SLT Assistant – for all her hours of typing.

Ashleigh Denman
Regional Clinical Advisor in Head Injury for the Western Region of the Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists.
