

Aims and objectives

By attending this event, delegates will:

- Hear more about the role of the RCSLT Hubs and how they can support you
- Hear from colleagues across the Hub on learnings from COVID-19 and the #BuildBackBetterSLT report
- Find out more about the pre-registration eating, drinking and swallowing competencies and have an opportunity to ask questions
- Have an opportunity to make connections with colleagues across the Hub

Programme (Subject to change)

13.15 – 13.25	Log-in and test your Zoom
13.25 – 13.30	Welcome and housekeeping Alison Rohantynskyi, regional chair
13.30 – 14.00	Role of the RCSLT Hubs: how can the Hub support you? Andrea Robinson, England Trustee, RCSLT Board of Trustees; and Kaleigh Maietta, events and engagement manager, RCSLT
14.00 – 15.15	Learning from COVID-19: #BuildBackBetterSLT: lightning talks  What is an urgent dysphagia referral? Standardising telephone triage and prioritisation Anna Ray, City Healthcare Partnership  Sharing our expertise and specialist knowledge: using accessible and affordable online training to upskill our workforce Steph Burgess, Airedale NHS Foundation Trust  Inserting nasogastric tubes in the community Kathleen Graham, Calderdale & Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust  YouTube influencers – Barnsley Speech and Language Therapy YouTube Channel Nicola Maddy and Emily Dodd, Barnsley children’s speech and language therapy team
15.15-15.30	Refreshment break
15.30 – 16.00	Pre-registration eating, drinking and swallowing competency framework Judith Broll, director of professional development, RCSLT; and Louise Borjes, project coordinator, RCSLT
16.00 – 16.15	Summary and close Alison Rohantynskyi, regional chair
16.15	End