

RCSLT report

RCSLT REPORT
Speech and language therapy during and beyond COVID-19: building back better with people who have communication and swallowing needs

RCSLT has published a report on COVID19 and speech and language therapy.

The survey report includes what the Government can do to help.

It asks for better access to speech and language therapy

It asks for more support for people with communication and swallowing needs

Petition

There is a petition on the Parliament website.

It asks the Government to give more money to speech and language therapy.

How you can help

You can sign the petition.

You can tell your family about the petition.

Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists (RCSLT) – petition on speech and language therapy

You can tell your friends about the petition.

You can share the QR code.

What happens next

With 10,000 signatures the Government responds.

With 100,000 signatures it will be considered for a debate

More information

For more information:

Visit bit.ly/BuildBackBetterSLT

Email:

peter.just@rcslt.org

padraigin.oflynn@rcslt.org

Thank you!

Thank you for your support!