

Role Specification for Country Representative for England (North or South regions)

The responsibilities or duties of the Country Representative for England (North or South regions) cover two areas: those as a Trustee and those specifically designated to the Trustees for the Countries.

Responsibilities as Trustee

The Board of Trustees (the Board) is made up of appointed or co-opted RCSLT members and appointed or co-opted non-members as authorised by the Articles.

Trustees bring an independent judgement to bear on issues of strategy, performance, key appointment and accountability.

Trustees agree to adhere to the Trustee Code of Conduct including the Statement of Values and Behaviours.

The duties of Trustees are to:

- Provide strategic direction for the RCSLT
- Monitor delivery of the Vision and Annual Operating Plan
- Satisfy themselves that qualitative and financial information is accurate and that controls and systems of risk management are robust and defensible
- Ensure that the RCSLT is financially viable
- Ensure that the RCSLT fulfils its legal obligations
- Have a prime role in appointing and where necessary, removing the CEO and in succession planning
- Ensure the Board acts in the best interests of the profession and is fully accountable to the profession
- Act as an ambassador for the RCSLT

Trustees may also have a key role in a committee or may have a specific role on the Board. Separate role descriptions are provided for these roles.

Declaration of Interests

All Board members declare any personal or business interest which may influence, or may be perceived to influence, their judgement. Trustees must not, under any circumstances, accept gifts or hospitality where this could be seen as likely to influence the decision of the Board.

Responsibilities as Country Representative for England (North or South regions)

The Country Representative for England (North or South regions) works in close co-operation with the Chief Executive and other staff as appropriate. The specific responsibilities for the Country Representative include:

- To analyse the risks and opportunities for the profession and represent members and their interests in general and in their region of England in particular. (Across all sectors and care groups)
- To build and strengthen connections with RCSLT members across England (North or South regions) so that learning and innovation are shared
- To provide update reports at Board meetings against the annual plan
- To take on additional roles as a member of the Board as required

Commitments

The Country Representative for England (for both North and South regions) is expected to make the following commitments:

- Attend the RCSLT Hub Forum England meetings (at least 3 times a year) either in person or virtually as agreed by the Chair
- Attend meetings of the Board, four times per year, either in person or virtually as agreed by the Chair, the AGM, and other meetings as required
- Make time available to read papers prior to meetings so as to be able to contribute fully to meetings
- Attend meetings with stakeholders where appropriate
- Be available for regular catch up conversations and urgent decisions where required
- Liaise with other colleagues also involved in the RCSLT as appropriate

The time commitment as a Country Representative for England is estimated to be not less than one day per month.
