

Professor Jo Patterson is the Chair of Speech & Language Therapy and Vice Dean for Research at School of Allied Healthcare Professionals and Nursing, University of Liverpool, UK.

Jo leads the 'Living Well with Head and Neck Cancer' theme for the Liverpool Head and Neck Centre. Living Well With Head and Neck Cancer Research Group |

Liverpool Head & Neck Centre We host national, and international clinicians and academics, from pre-doctoral to early career researchers, supported by senior academics and the Patient Research Forum. Our research programme includes holistic prehabilitation, enhanced recovery, psychosocial adjustment and support models, outcome measure development and novel swallowing intervention development. Jo has published over 200 peer-reviewed publications and book chapters. She is a NIHR Senior Investigator, a Fellow and Professional Advisor for RCSLT; is the SLT representative on NIHR ENT national group, providing strategic direction for Allied Healthcare Professionals' research in ENT practice.