

communication help for the justice system

More than 60%

of young people in the justice system have low language skills

40%

of people in the justice system find it difficult to engage with spoken rehabilitation programmes – our free elearning will help you support them to improve outcomes

KEY BENEFITS

- It's free!
- Help people in the justice system understand, and be understood, to help reduce the likelihood of reoffending
- Reduce conflict due to communication issues (person to person and person to staff)
- Fulfil duty of care to people in the justice system by being able to effectively communicate with them
- Counts as CPD for your profession

Visit www.rcsltcpd.org.uk and take the free training to help you support them

