RCSLT Conference 2019 keynote: Pauline Beirne

Pauline Beirne

Pauline Beirne is the National Lead, AHP Children and Young People, at Scottish Government

Pauline has worked in the NHS as a practitioner and leader for more than 30 years, including working as an educational project manager with NHS Education for Scotland and for several years as an independent consultant.

Pauline has a national reputation as a facilitator and presenter.

She is currently seconded to Scottish Government as national lead for allied health professions in children and young people's services, leading on whole systems transformational change in Scotland.

Pauline is most interested in trauma-informed practice, changing the culture through challenging processes and systems, and building relational collaborative partnerships with communities with a focus on child and family informed and accessible service design and delivery.
